Following publication of the original article [1], the authors identified an error in the authorship: due to miscommunication, the last author (Amy Reynolds) did not have the opportunity to appropriately contribute to the manuscript, which violates the ICMJE criteria for authorship and her name therefore needed to be removed from the author group and the 'Authors contributions' section and her affiliation (original affiliation 5; Flinders Health and Medical Research Institute (Sleep Health)/Adelaide Institute for Sleep Health, College of Medicine and Public Health, Flinders University, Bedford Park, SA, Austra-lia) needed to be removed from the list of affiliations. In addition, the authors identified an error in the author name of the fifth author.

The incorrect author name is: Yohanns Melaku The correct author name is: Yohannes Adama Melaku

The author group and the list of affiliations has been
